

Talented

WAITER

Tina

Written by Jen Posner &

Grace Koebler

Directed by Catherine Crowley

Illustrations by Madison Bill

Supported by Smile Train

Practice with us!

Stories and rhymes to improve speech after surgery to repair a cleft palate.

In a tiny town on Tater Tot Mountain,

down a winding road

Talented waiter Tina told many a tale at Dollar Diner.

Talented waiter Tina told many a tale...

A twin mermaid tale:

Tara

and

Dara

who wear teal

A tutued turtle tale:
He had two hundred and ten toes

A muddy toad tale:
Who waddled to a tune

And a meedy dino tale.

He hid in daylight and rode around town late at night

"Tell a tale at dinner tonight!"

"Do it!"

"Do it, Tina!"

"Do it!"

"Tell a tale waiter Tina!"

"Do it!"

"Do it!"

"To me!"

"NO, to me!"

Tina: "Hold on one minute!"

"We won't wait!"

"Alright, deal. Let me do it."

"Time to tell a tale."

Tina turned her head.

"Oh no! I tired you out."

"Tomorrow I'll tell a tale."

Cleft Palate Speech Tutorial Project

Director: Catherine Crowley CCC-SLP, J.D., Ph.D.

Director: Miriam Baigorri CCC-SLP, Ph.D

Copyright Teachers College, Columbia University 2016

LEADERSproject.org

For information: crowley@tc.columbia.edu

Creative Commons Attribution-Non-Commercial-NoDerivs 3.0

Creative Commons Attribution-Non-Commercial-NoDerivs 3.0

