Talented
WAITER
Tina

Written by Jen Posner & Grace Koehler
Directed by Catherine Crowley
Illustrations by Madison Bill
Supported by Smile Train
Practice with us!

T and D

Stories and rhymes to improve speech after surgery to repair a cleft palate.
In a tiny town on Tater Tot Mountain, down a winding road
Talented waiter Tina told many a tale at Dollar Diner.
Talented waiter Tina told many a tale...
A twin mermaid tale:

Tara and Dara

who wear teal
A tutued turtle tale: He had two hundred and ten toes
A muddy toad tale:
Who waddled
to a tune
And a moody dino tale.

He hid in daylight and rode around town late at night.
“Tell a tale at dinner tonight!”

“Do it!”

“Do it, Tina!”

“Do it!”
“Tell a tale waiter Tina!”

“Do it!”

“Do it!”
"To me!"

"NO, to me!"

Tina: "Hold on one minute!"

"We won't wait!"
“Alright, deal. Let me do it.”

“Time to tell a tale.”
Tina turned her head.

"Oh no! I tired you out."
"Tomorrow I’ll tell a tale."
Cleft Palate Speech Tutorial Project

Director: Catherine Crowley CCC-SLP, J.D., Ph.D.
Director: Miriam Baigorri CCC-SLP, Ph.D.
Copyright Teachers College, Columbia University 2016
LEADERSproject.org
For information: crowley@tc.columbia.edu
Creative Commons Attribution-Non-Commercial-NoDerivs 3.0

Creative Commons Attribution-Non-Commercial-NoDerivs 3.0